It is with deepest regret that I have learned of the death of your mother. There is little that can be said in times such as this but I want you to know that my thoughts are with you.

Please accept my sincere condolences.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Dulles:

[redacted] mother died yesterday but no one in the Division or the Office of Personnel seems to know when the funeral will be held. However, Gordon is planning to be away from his office the rest of this week. I understand that his mother was quite elderly and had been seriously ill for some time.
